

As an active amateur radio operator since 1963 i urge you to not allow "broadband over powerline" to exist in any form. The amateur radio service depends on the fcc to protect our communication and bpl would be a serious threat to amateur radio. This concept was tried in Europe and failed. I urge you to do further investigation and uphold your sworn duty to protect communications services from interfering with each other.